

Megan Gillette
mgillette@hotmail.com
www.megangillette.com

Professional Experience

- July 2003–Present
Wolfram Research, Inc. • Champaign, IL
Graphic and Web Designer
Collaborating with team of creatives, programmers and researchers to implement my designs of web, print and packaging materials for the manufacturer of Mathematica®, the leading analytical mathematical software.
- August 2000–Present
Scuba Studio • Urbana, IL
Design Director
Director of a freelance design studio for graphic and web design. Managing all aspects of business including: sourcing new business, creative direction, design, budgeting and print production.
- July 2002–July 2003
The Beckman Institute of Science and Technology • Urbana, IL
Graphic Artist
Directed a creative team for an educational Flash video of an ESEM microscope for NASA. Collaborated with researchers for design of educational posters illustrating the uses and advantages of different microscopes and technological equipment. Design and consulting on logos and brochures for internal groups at The Beckman Institute.
- 1998–Present
Professional Glass Artist • Carmel, CA, Chicago, and Champaign-Urbana, IL
Selling and promoting glass art. Organizing and curating exhibitions. Cultivating relationships with collectors, galleries and other glass artists.

Education

- 1996–2001
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign • Urbana-Champaign, IL
BFA May 2000, College of Art & Design
Special Honors in Crafts
Fine Arts Talented Scholarship Fall 1999, Spring 2000
Deans List 1998–2000
- 2001–2003
Parkland College • Champaign, IL
Graphic and Web Design with Paul Young, Bonnie Burgund and John Havlik.

Computer Experience

Adobe Photoshop, Adobe ImageReady, Adobe Illustrator, Adobe InDesign, Macromedia Dreamweaver, Macromedia Flash, QuarkXPress

Additional Coursework

- July 2001
The Studio at The Corning Museum of Glass • Corning, NY
Awarded Talented Artist Scholarship for torchworking with Emilio Santini.
- July 2000
Haystack Mountain School for Crafts • Deer Isle, ME
Awarded Talented Artist Scholarship for glassblowing with Richard Marquis and Ruth King.
- July 1999
Pilchuck Glass School • Stanwood, WA
Dale Chihuly's Glass School. Awarded Talented Artist Scholarship for glass blowing with Australian glass artist Nick Mount.
- Summer 1997
SACI (Studio Art Centers International) • Florence, Italy
Italian Art History and Jewelry Design.

Volunteer Work

- 2002–Present
Member of the CU DIVA's
(Champaign Urbana Downtown Independent Volunteer Association)
Involved in monthly projects benefiting local charities.